

Christine Freiman,
Project Manager
Indiana's Drug Endangered Children
Protocols

Christine Freiman is currently the project manager for Indiana's Drug Endangered Children Protocols. She also manages the redevelopment of child welfare policies for the Indiana Department of Child Services (DCS). Prior to working with DCS, Freiman was the Director of Community Planning at the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA).

She is the owner of Freiman Consulting, Inc., and provides planning, research, technical writing and communications services to clients in the non-profit and public sectors.

Freiman has 15 years of professional experience and is pursuing a Masters of Public Affairs at IUPUI. She serves on the board of directors of the Marion County Commission on Youth (MCCOY), the Community Ministries Commission at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, and the Northside Community Building Forum. Freiman holds an undergraduate degree in Journalism and Communication from the University of Colorado, Boulder.